

UMBC MANAGEMENT OF AGING SERVICES

THE ERICKSON SCHOOL

Graduate Program | Masters in Management of Aging Services (M.A.)

There has never been a better time to affect the future. Your own and that of a million others...

UMBC Erickson School Goes Beyond and Offers:

- Innovative curriculum designed and taught by industry leaders with real world practical experience
- An integrative approach, which widens perspectives and creates solutions for a growing demographic
- Unique combination of business, public policy and aging studies
- Solid commitments and involvement from industry leaders with Erickson students
- Strong alumni engagement provides meaningful long-term networks and career connections
- Tremendous passion from students, faculty and alumni

COURSES (36 credits)

600	Social and Economic Context of Aging (OL)	3
604	Policy Foundations of Aging Services (OL)	3
610	Leadership Management and Organizations I (OL)	2
611	Leadership Management and Organizations II (OL)	3
612	Finance and Accounting (OL)	3
624	Strategy, Marketing, and Service Delivery in Aging Services	3
625	Research and Presenting Information (OL)	3
632	Diversity in Management of Aging Services (OL)	2
638	Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Design I	3
639	Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Design II	2
640	Design Think, Technology, Environmental Design (OL)	2
643	Law, Ethics, Longevity	1
645	Mental Wellness in Aging (OL)	3
661	Introduction to Interdisciplinary Thinking in MAgS	1
662	Correlation and Review (OL)	2

Combine a leading university with a professional school dedicated to educating leaders to create environments that honor, respect, and engage older adults

