

MANAGEMENT OF AGING SERVICES MAJOR

ADVISING CHECKLIST

STUDENT NAME:

Core Courses	Semester Taken	Grade	Substitute Course	School where course was taken	Prereq./Notes
AGNG 100 So You Say You Want A Revolution (SS)					Offered as IHU for 4 credits.
AGNG 200 Experience of Aging (WI, SS)					Offered as IHU for 4 credits.
AGNG 300 Overview of Aging					AGNG 200 or equiv.
AGNG 301 Intermediate Policy Analysis for Aging Issues I					AGNG 300
AGNG 310 Introduction to Management of Aging Services II					Permission of Instructor
AGNG 311 Introduction to Management of Aging Services					AGNG 310 or Permission of Instructor
AGNG 320 Strength-Based Approaches to Promoting Health and Wellness in the Aging Services I					AGNG 100 and AGNG 200 or permission from the instructor
AGNG 321 Strength-Based Approaches to Promoting Health and Wellness in the Aging Services II					AGNG 320 or permission by instructor
AGNG 351 Business Decision Making for Aging Services					AGNG 200 or equivalent
AGNG 361 Technology for Managers in Aging Services					AGNG 100 & IS 101, CMSC 100, CMSC 104 or CMSC 201 or Permission of instructor/IS 295 can replace this course, if you've already taken it.
AGNG 401 Foundations of Aging Services					AGNG 300 or permission of instructor
AGNG 422 Research Apps in Aging Services					STAT 121, 351 or permission of instructor
AGNG 440 Diversity in Aging					AGNG 401 or permission of instructor
Circle ONE AGNG 460 Internship OR AGNG 462 Internship AND AGNG 463 Internship					Junior standing, 15 credits in major, 2.5 GPA or better or consent of instructor
AGNG 470 Capstone					Senior standing, AGNG 460 or 462 & 463

Content Elective Courses (Must Select 6 credits)	Semester Taken	Grade	Substitute Course	School Where Course Was Taken	Prereq./Notes
AGNG 298, 398,498 Special Topics in Aging Services Management					May repeat for credit on different topic, for a total of 6 credits between AGNG 298 & AGNG 498
AGNG 430 Law & Ethics in Aging Services					Junior Standing, AGNG 100, PHIL 358 or ECAD 385 or IS 304 or permission of instructor
AGNG 454 Global Aging & The Future of Social Insurance					AGNG 200 and Junior standing . or Permission of Instructor
AGNG 497 Supplemental Practicum in Aging Services					AGNG 460 or AGNG 462 & 463, May be taken for a max. of 3 credits.
ECON 121 Principles of Accounting					N/A
ECON 122 Principles of Accounting II					No longer required, but if taken will count towards elective req. ECON 121
HAPP 498 Financial Mgmt and Decision Support for Health Services Orgs					HAPP 100 or EHS 200, ECON 121 & 122 Spring Semester Only
IS 304 Ethical Issues in Information Systems (AH)					Any 300 level IS course
MGMT 210 Principals of Management
MGMT 310 HUMAN RESOURCE MGMT					Junior standing
POLI 354 Public Management & Personnel Systems					Junior standing or POLI 250
PSYC 306 Lifespan Human Development					PSYC 100/Also listed as EDUC 306
PSYC 307 Psychology of Aging					PSYC 100 and one additional PSYC course
SOCY 431 Family & Aging in Society					9 credits in SOCY and Junior standing or consent of instructor
SOCY 434 Gender & The Life Course					SOCY 101, GWST 100, Junior standing or consent of instructor/also listed as GWST 434
SOWK 260 Intro to Social Welfare, Social Policy & Social Work I (SS)					SOWK 240
SOWK 388 Human Behavior					SOWK 288
SOWK 397 Social Work Methods I: Introduction to Practice (WI)					SOWK 260, Junior standing and an overall GPA of 2.5 or better
SPCH 100 (AH)					Notes: SPCH 210 Interpersonal Communication OR SPCH 220 Small Group Communication can replace this course if you've already taken it.