

Graduate Program in Management of Aging Services

UMBC

Master of Arts in Management of Aging Services

CAREER GROWTH, OPPORTUNITY, AND INNOVATION - MANAGEMENT OF AGING SERVICES

- Built to prepare students for an increasingly diverse aging experience
- The Longevity Economy will generate jobs, opportunity, and innovation
- Both full-time, 16-month fast track program and part time options, allow flexibility for working professionals
- Curriculum that combines business, public policy, and aging studies

WHEN YOU CHOOSE THIS GRADUATE PROGRAM, YOU CAN COUNT ON:

- A hybrid learning experience combining online and classroom instruction
- Faculty and student body with real world experience and perspectives cultivating meaningful long-term networks and career connections
- Capstone project combining critical thinking, creative problem solving, and enhanced communication skills
- Joining the mission of The Erickson School to enhance the lives of older adults

WHY UMBC?

UMBC is central to Washington D.C., Baltimore, Annapolis and headquarters for Social Security and Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)

Ranked in the top seven on U.S. News & World Report's 2017 closely-watched Most Innovative Schools list, and recognized as a global leader in higher education.

FOR PROGRAM AND APPLICATION INFORMATION:

Leigh Appel

Director, Marketing, Communications & Alumni Relations
Lappel2@umbc.edu | 443-543-5608

erickson.umbc.edu

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

Bachelor's Degree

Minimum Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale

GRE scores are not required for applicants with a degree from an accredited U.S. institution

Online UMBC Application, including resume, recommendations, transcript, and essay questions

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

Financial Responsibility Form

TOFEL score

Please visit international.umbc.edu

ADMISSION DEADLINES

Fall: June 1

Spring: December 1

For detailed application process please visit: gradschool.umbc.edu

MASTER'S PROGRAM

Master of Arts in Management of Aging Services (MAgS)

[36 credits]

AGNG 600: Social and Economic Context of Aging

AGNG 604: Policy Foundations of Aging Services

AGNG 610: Leadership, Management and Organizations I

AGNG 611: Leadership, Management and Organizations II

AGNG 612: Finance and Accounting

AGNG 624: Strategy, Marketing, and Service Delivery in Aging Services

AGNG 625: Research and Presenting Information

AGNG 632: Diversity in Management of Aging Services

AGNG 638: Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Design I

AGNG 639: Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Design II

AGNG 640: Design, Think, Technology, Environmental Design

AGNG 643: Laws, Ethics, Longevity

AGNG 645: Mental Wellness in Aging

AGNG 661: Introduction to Interdisciplinary Thinking in MAgS

AGNG 662: Correlation and Review - Capstone

UMBC MANAGEMENT OF AGING SERVICES

THE ERICKSON SCHOOL