
ReFraming Aging

Changing the “Conventional Wisdom” About Aging

James C. Appleby, BSPHarm, MPH, ScD (hon)
Executive Director and CEO
The Gerontological Society of America

The ReFraming Aging initiative highlights new approaches to talking and thinking about aging. Focusing on the age-integrated nature of our shared lives leads to a decisively more positive conception of older adults and attitudes toward aging. This session explores research by the ReFraming Aging initiative supported by a coalition of 8 national organizations on aging.

Monday, April 16, 2018

Lecture 12:00 p.m.

UMBC Campus:

University Center, Room 310

Campus Maps:

<https://about.umbc.edu/visitors-guide/campus-map/>

Presented by the Ph.D. Program in Gerontology at UMB/UMBC

Co-Sponsored by:

The Peter Lamy Center on Drug Therapy and Aging, University of Maryland School of Pharmacy * Biology and Behavior Across the Lifespan (BBAL), University of Maryland School of Nursing * Geriatrics and Gerontology Education and Research Program (GGEAR) * University of Maryland Center for Research on Aging * Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Center * University of Maryland School of Social Work * Baltimore VA Medical Center Geriatric Research, Education, and Clinical Center (GRECC)

