

Why This Certificate?

There is an increasing need for professionals who understand older adults' needs, strength and challenges. Working with or on behalf of older adults can be a rewarding experience and you will be well-positioned for today's competitive environment. The Erickson School experience is transformative for both individuals and their organizations.

For Who?

- Professionals who want to develop their leadership skills/advance their career but are not ready to commit to a full Masters program.
- Professionals in other fields who are impacted by an aging client or consumer.
- Someone who may already have a Master's degree, but would like to expand their base of knowledge and expertise.
- Career changers who would like to build credibility within the aging services field.
- Entrepreneurs who are interested in developing new products and services to meet the needs of the longevity market.

Requirements

- ▶ Graduate Certificate Application
- ▶ Graduate School Residency Form
- ▶ Transcripts (photocopies accepted) of Bachelor's and/or Graduate Degree(s)
- ▶ No GRE Required

Schedule: 100% Online

COURSE	CREDITS
FALL SEMESTER
AGNG 600 - Social & Economic Perspectives	3
AGNG 612 - Financial & Managerial Acumen	3
SPRING SEMESTER
AGNG 604 - Reframing Public Policy for the Longevity Economy	3
AGNG 611 - Leadership: The Foundation of Organizational Collaboration	3
TOTAL CREDITS	12

Application Process:

Apply Online: <https://gradschool.umbc.edu/admissions/requirements/certs-nd/>
Principles of Management of Aging Services CODE: PMAS

Upon completion of the certificate, if you choose to continue with the Master's Program (Hybrid,) the (12) credits completed would apply to the Graduate degree (total of 36 credits.)

UMBC Alumni? Claim Your Future - $1000 Scholarship Available
<https://gradschool.umbc.edu/retrievernation/>

Maryland Resident: $999/credit | Non-Maryland Resident: $1,659/credit

Fall Application Deadline: August 1st

Spring Application Deadline: December 1st