

The logo for "Careers in Aging Week" features a stylized "G" icon on the left, composed of concentric red and blue lines. To the right of the icon, the words "CAREERS IN" are stacked above "AGING WEEK". "CAREERS IN" is in blue, "AGING" is in red, and "WEEK" is in blue.

CAREERS IN AGING WEEK

Tiffany Nicolette, M.A.

Tiffany Nicolette, Vice President of Housing & Services at CHAI Comprehensive Housing Assistance, Inc., has over a decade of experience in residential program management with a focus on aging-in-place. Playing an integral role in the leadership and development of multiple teams with CHAI in the past 4 years, Tiffany brings a fresh perspective to an industry in need of creative minds but she also possesses the passion and drive necessary to execute her visions to improve senior housing and related services in the Baltimore-metro area.

Working with organizations like The Shelter Group, Edgewood Management, and CSI Support & Development Services has honed her skills in marketing, training, strategic planning, and aging services management. In addition to her experience, Tiffany is an alumna of The Erickson School of Aging Studies with a Master of Arts in the Management of Aging Services and is a member of Sigma Phi Omega Gerontology Honor Society.

UMBC

THE ERICKSON SCHOOL
OF AGING STUDIES