

Brittany Weinberg

Founder/CEO, BW Global Consulting, LLC

Brittany Weinberg is the Founder/CEO of BW Global Consulting, LLC, working to advance the aging space through consulting projects focused on utilizing innovation and technology, global and local thinking, and healthy aging best practices. Weinberg's experience spans multiple aging industry sectors, including health policy, Medicare, Medicaid, technology, and innovation.

Before establishing BW Global Consulting, LLC, Weinberg was Director of Community Engagement at Aging2.0, and she managed the global program comprised of international Chapters in over 20 countries. Chapters were tasked with creating local ecosystems to support innovators in aging. Prior to joining Aging2.0, Brittany worked in healthcare innovation at MedStar Health and Meals on Wheels and In-Home Services at Mid-Cumberland HRA.

She holds a dual degree Master of Business Administration – Master in Gerontology from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. In 2015, Weinberg received the UNCG Pacesetters Award for her innovative efforts to advance health and aging.

Weinberg advocates for aging innovation in her work at BW Global Consulting, LLC and in her community volunteering. She volunteered for the Aging2.0 Washington, DC Chapter for several years, served as Ambassador for the Aging2.0 DC Chapter, and regularly supports a local organization called "So Others Might Eat" by donating food and clothing. This past year during the Covid-19 pandemic, Brittany adopted an elderly neighbor by providing social-distanced companionship and other essentials, although Weinberg says her elderly neighbor adopted her in actuality.
