

Christine Blaney MacMillan, BSN, RN, is Director of Quality, Risk and Patient Safety at Heart of the Rockies Regional Medical Center, a Critical Access Hospital in Salida, Colorado. She is also the hospital's Corporate Compliance Officer.

Christine has spent the majority of her career in skilled nursing and long-term care, starting as a LPN on a skilled unit. After obtaining her RN, she progressed to MDS coordinator, Director of Nursing, Regional Clinical Consultant, and on to Chief Clinician and Corporate Compliance Officer, serving the states of Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Delaware and the District of Columbia. Christine is also a legal nurse providing expert services in the legal medical arena as an independent contractor. Her focus has always been on quality, safety, regulations and risk.